Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he is guilty of all (James 2:10)

There was an erroneous teaching floating around in the Jewish synagogues giving some Jews a false sense of peace. While the Jews taught that 'he who transgresses all the precepts of the law has broken the yoke, dissolved the covenant, and exposed the law to contempt; and so has he done who has only broken one precept;' they also taught, 'that he who observed ANY principal command was equal to him who kept the whole law,' and gave for an example the forsaking of idolatry. James was seeking to correct this erroneous teaching. God says, in Deut 27:26 'Cursed [is] the one who does not confirm [all] the words of this law by observing them.' Jesus said, "'For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled. Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven. Paul says, For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, "Cursed [is] everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them." Thank God that Christ has redeemed us from the curse having become a curse for us.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
