Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Precious in the sight of the LORD, is the death of His saints (Psa 116:15)

God loves a home coming gathering. To be absent from the body is to be present with the LORD. So shall we ever be with the LORD. God missed Enoch so much, He couldn't wait for the end of his life to come naturally, but God took him. Death is unnatural, the effect of sin. God told Adam, the day you eat the fruit, you shall surely die. Sin separates us from our fellow man, but ultimately it separates us from God. God says, "but your iniquities have separated you from you God; And your sins have hidden His face from you." But thanks be to God that it didn't end there. God made provision to bring reconciliation. The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the Law, but thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Christ forever conquered sin and death through His suffering, death and resurrection. We did the crime, Jesus paid our fine. We can now be reconciled. Now, for the death of the Christian, it is not a leap into the dark as Thomas Hobbes said, but a step into the light to be forever with God. It's no longer a good bye, but a so long! We sorrow, but not as those who have no hope. We will see each other again.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
