Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

"Paul, a bondservant of Jesus Christ" (Romans 1:1)

Paul, before he mentioned his calling or his ministry, made his confession that he was a bondservant of Jesus Christ. He belonged to Him. Whatever else he did in life, Paul knew above else that he was a willing slave to the Lord Jesus Christ. A bondservant in the Old Testament was one who willingly submitted himself to his master for the rest of his life. In Exodus 21:5-6 it says, "And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife and my children; I will not go out free: Then his master shall bring him unto the judges: he shall also bring ham to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl; and he shall serve him for ever." Notice, this was an act of free will. He loved his master. He would serve Him forever. So too, Christian, we our willing servants of the Lord Jesus Christ. There are no forced slaves in the Kingdom of God, only volunteers who have been touched forever by the love of Jesus Christ, willing hearts offering our lives as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable unto God, which is our reasonable service. Whatever we do in word or deed, do all unto the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ. He is worthy.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
