Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

"I write to you father's because you have known him that is from the beginning (1 John 2:13)

What a blessing, honor, and privilege it is to have the benefit of being raised in a family where the father is a God-honoring, God-fearing man and leads his children in the fear and admonition of the LORD. When Abraham was chatting with the Lord, God said, "Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do...For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment" (Gen 18:17, 19). In a song entitled, Father Knows Best, by Lenny LaBlanc and Mike Curtis the story is told of a young boy who didn't heed his father's warning and almost died. The son then vowed to obey the fifth commandment and honor his Father. The song goes, "Father knows best, father knows best. If he hadn't been lookin' out for me I'd be in such a mess I swore from then on I would do just what he said 'Cause father knows best, father knows best." So too, as the song goes, we have a Father in Heaven who knows what's best and looks out for us so we can be at rest and prevent us from getting into a mess if we take heed to what He says. Psalms 103:13 says, As a father pities his children, So the LORD pities those who fear Him. The word "pity" means to love deeply, to have compassion. Praise God we have a Father in Heaven who loves us that much.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
