Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

"For there must also be factions among you that those who are approved may be recognized among you."

The word translated "faction" is the Greek word from which we get our word heresy from. In this verse it means conflict resulting from various opinions. A Bible teacher once quipped, "Two Jews, three opinions." We see conflict very early on in the Church. The earliest is found in the book of Acts over whether or not a Gentile had to be circumcised and keep the Law of Moses or not. It was through conflict that resulted in Creeds and Confessions. For example, the Arians (from Arius in the 4th Century) believed that Jesus Christ was a created being and was not God, which brought about the Nicene Creed. Every time there was a disagreement, they went back to the Word of God. The Bereans were known for this: "The received the Word with all readiness of mind but they searched the Scriptures daily to PROVE whether those things were so. We already have the source material sufficient for all things that pertain to life and godliness and that is the Word of God. The Word of God is like precious gems hidden in the mountain. Dig into it, Christian, and admire the multifaceted beauty and brilliance that is the Word of God. Stand on it. Hold fast to it. It is able to make you wise unto salvation. It is the Word of God from which we can achieve true unity. Praise God for His Word. It is precious and worthy of your time to mediate in it.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
