Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

"Be still and know that I am God."

Eight simple words is all God needs to squash any fear and worry you might have. Oh if we can only learn that in the midst of our trials. We fly apart at the slightest threat of trouble. So what does God tell us to do when we are tempted to fear an worry? Still your heart, focus on Me and know who's you are. When Peter was walking on water, he was focusing on Jesus. When he began to sink it was because he started looking at his circumstances. He saw the waves roaring and the wind blowing and lost focus of who he belonged to. Jesus said don't worry about what you eat, what you drink, what to wear. These are all things the Gentiles worry about. We shouldn't because we have God as our Father, who knows what we need before we ask. All He asks is that we seek first His Kingdom, and His righteousness and all these things will be added. Why? Because He knows what you need. He says, Look to the flowers of the field and the birds of the air. He said, If God so clothes the flowers of the field, which is temporary and feeds the birds of the air, how much more His creatures whom He died for? Be still and know who you belong to. Be still, quiet your heart and know He is God.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
