Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

"This I recall to mind, therefore I have hope (Lamentations 3:21)

Jeremiah, in the midst of seeing Jerusalem sacked, brought to mind a truth that provided him an anchor to his soul and allowed him to endure the awful scene and have hope. How? Jeremiah brought to mind the immutable, unchanging goodness and mercy of God. He recalls it is through the Lord's mercy we are not consumed and His compassions fail not (vs 22). He is the same yesterday, today and forever. He changes not. Though He causes grief, yet He will show compassion, according to the multitude of His mercies. For He does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men (32-33). Remember, Christian, before you were in Christ, the wrath of God abided on you. Now, however, having been reconciled through the Lord Jesus Christ, you have peace with God. He is not longer your adversary, but your Father. Jesus is no longer your Judge, by your Defense Attorney. Now, nothing can separate you from the love of God in Christ Jesus. Now He causes all things to work together for the good—to conform you to the image of Christ. If God is for you, who can be against you? Christian, in your hour of darkness, recall to mind the One who keeps your tears in a bottle and never leaves you.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
