Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

"They are new every morning; Great is Your faithfulness" (Lam. 3:23)

There is nothing like waking up to fresh coffee in the morning. So too, there is nothing like waking up to fresh mercy, fresh love, fresh grace every morning. Just like the Israelites would wake up every morning to the promise of fresh manna, we can wake up every morning with the promise of fresh mercy, love and grace available to us. It's the ultimate Groundhog Day. It doesn't matter how bad we've blown it the day before, we can count on God's faithfulness to be new every morning. Jesus said not to worry about tomorrow for tomorrow has its own troubles. Why not? Perhaps it is because when tomorrow becomes today, so too is God's mercy to carry you throughout the day. When the ladies came to anoint the body of Jesus on that fateful Sunday morning, they asked themselves, "Who shall move the stone for us?" God's mercy was already at work. That stone barring the ladies desire was removed already. Before they woke up, God was at work already. Christian, before you wake up, God is already working on your behalf. Great is His faithfulness. Wake up Christian, open your eyes to God's fresh mercy for you.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
