Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also. (John 14:3)

Jesus gives us three promises here. First He's coming again. Second, He is coming to receive you. Thirdly, He is taking you to where He is. Notice, He's not sending someone else. He Himself is coming. Sometimes, Presidents don't have time to attend certain functions and sends someone else in his place but in this case, Jesus Himself is the one coming. He says this in the most strongest of terms. He says, "I will." All the promises of God in Him, is yes and in Him, amen. It is impossible for God to lie. God doesn't break His promises. The angels said, This same Jesus whom you saw going up into heaven is coming again in like manner (Acts 1:11). Jesus' prayer to the Father is that we would be with Him where He is and see Him in all His Glory (John 17:24). Paul tells us, "For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. (I Thess 4:16-17). Jesus said, "Surely I am coming quickly." Amen.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
