- ◆ Thought for the Day: "Many Bible passages (such as Luke 13:3 or Acts 2:38) issue a call for repentance. Repentance? The very thought stops our hearts with chilling honesty, for it insists that we come clean before we set out to execute life's important choices. Repentance demands that we choose a life of holy living." —Calvin Miller

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

"I am the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End, the Almighty"

In the beginning, there was God. In the end, God is there. From beginning to end and everything in between, God is there. He is called the One who is, who was, and who is to come. David cried out, Where can I flee from your Presence? If I make my bed in Hell, you are there. Aren't you glad, Christian, that during the times of your worst Hell, He is there with you? Moses said, "What is your name?" God replied, "I Am." That name means the Ever Present One. So too, Jesus said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you. I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Can there be anything more comforting to the Christian besides knowing the God who is there and the He is the Ever Present One? In His presence is fullness of joy. He is an ever present help in time of need. In His presence comes times of refreshing. What better comfort than knowing His Presence is with us always and that He is working all things out for your good and that He is completing that good work He started? Unlike contractors that come and go when completing a job, God never leaves the job site. He will not leave until the job is done. This is the mansion Jesus speaks of.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
