Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

We must through many tribulation enter the Kingdom of God (Acts 14:22)

There are few promises that we wish Christ never gave. One of these promises is that in this life we will suffer tribulation (John 16:33). Paul makes the same promise. Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution (2 Timothy 3:12). Do you want to be free of persecution? Don't desire to live a godly life. Jesus said if they hate you, if they persecute you, you know they hated me before you (John 15:18). Why? Jesus explains this in the next verse, "if you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet because you are not of the world...therefore the world hates you. A servant is not greater than his master. If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. Therein lies the simple truth. You are not of this world. You belong to Christ. You are a child of God, thus an heir of God, joint heirs with Christ. If indeed we suffer with Him, we may also be glorified together with Him. Be strong in the grace and in the power of His might. This light affliction which is but for a moment is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
