Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

For this reason I also suffer these things, nevertheless I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day (2 Timothy 1:12)

"For this reason I also suffer these things." What things? Paul says to Timothy, "but share with me in the sufferings for the gospel." Paul was a prisoner as a result of his testimony of the gospel, which is the testimony of Jesus Christ. "Nevertheless I am not ashamed." Paul writes, "I am not ashamed of the gospel for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes. Paul was not ashamed because he knew who he was doing it for. "For I know whom I have believed." Notice, it's not a what, but a who. It's a person, the person of Jesus Christ. Jesus said, He who believes in me shall not be put to shame (Romans 10:11). He not only believed but was persuaded. What was he persuaded? He was persuaded that Jesus Christ was able to keep what Paul had committed to Him, that is, his very soul, until that final day. Abraham was promised seed well beyond child bearing age. Abraham rejoiced. Why? He too believed and was persuaded that what God promised He was also able to perform. So too, God has promised eternal life to all who repent and trust in Christ. Do you believe?

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
