Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Then the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom (Mark 15:38)

Man could not tear the veil of death, but the veil separating the Holy Place from the Holy of Holies was torn from top to bottom, showing it did not originate from man but from God. Christ passed through the veil and entered the Holy of Holies not made with hands having obtained eternal, not temporary redemption. When Christ died on the Cross he cried out It is finished. Tetelestai, paid in full. And you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses, having wiped out the handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross. Christ took upon Himself the curse of the law having become a curse for us. Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared in the same, that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. Oh death where is thy sting? Maranatha.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
