- ◆ Thought for the Day: "Faith lives in a broken heart. "He cried out with tears, Lord, I believe." True faith is always in a heart bruised for sin. Saving faith always grows in a heart humbled for sin, in a weeping eye and a tearful conscience." —Thomas Watson

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

I have loved you, says the LORD, yet you say, In what way have you loved us? (Malachi 1:2)

God was being challenged by His people, Israel, accusing the God who redeemed them out of Egypt of not loving them? His retort, "Have I not chosen you?" God said, "The LORD delighted only in your fathers, to love them; and He chose their descendants after them, you above all peoples, as it is this day. They had no reason to doubt God's love for them. So too, Christian, when we are often tempted to doubt the love of God for us, especially during hardships, be they financial, health, or relationships, remember that God demonstrated His own love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. What can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus, shall tribulation, nor distress, nor persecution, or famine, or nakedness or peril or sword, For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. He has loved you, He has redeemed you, He has made you His son or daughter, and will further honor you to reign with Him when He returns.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
