- ◆ Thought for the Day: ""Some read the Bible to learn and some read the Bible to hear from heaven." - Andrew Murray

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends (John 15:13)

On Memorial Day, we remember those men and women of our military, past and present; heroes who watered the seeds of freedom by their shed blood. These men and women died for their country and even for those who disdain their service. So too, God so loved the world that He gave His only Begotten Son to bleed and die so that we too might be set free. Whom the Son sets free is free indeed. For the Son of Man has come not to be served but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many. In Romans, Paul says this, "For scarcely for a righteous man will one die, yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die. But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:7-8). Sin, the Bible says, is enmity with God. Just as a soldier will take a grenade and sacrifice his life for a fellow soldier, so too, Christ bore our sins in His own body on the tree...by whose stripes you were healed.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
