Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

"Early will I seek you" (Psalm 63:1)

What did David mean when he said, early will I seek you? Does that mean we are supposed to be up at 4am and start seeking God in the wee hours of the day? With David, his first thought was directed towards God. It also carried the idea of intimate desire. When you love someone, what's the first thing on your mind? "I can't wait to see you!" So too, our attitude should be the same. The phrase also carries the thought of diligence or with earnest. God said, Seek me and you will find Me, when you seek me with all your heart (Jer 29:13). In the New Testament, Paul exhorts us to "pray without ceasing." Does that mean we give to God a constant barrage of prayer every second of the day? No, Jesus said don't pray like the heathen do, for they think they will be heard by their many words (Matthew 6:7). It does mean that the Lord is of first importance. Sometimes we hear Christians say, "Well, there's nothing left to do but pray!" Christian, prayer is the first thing we should do! Never start your day without first checking in. Amen?

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
