Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

All flesh is as grass (I Peter 1:24)

The brevity of physical life. We are born, grow up and then the process of decay soon begins. If we are lucky, we may live up to 100 years and die a good, old age. Yet, none of us are guaranteed even that. Peter goes on and says, "And all the glory of man as the flower of the grass. The grass withers, and its flower falls away." It has been said that our life is the — between birth and death as shown on a tombstone. Yet, notice I mentioned only physical life. There is a spiritual, non physical part of our being that is therefore not subject to the physical laws of entropy or decay. This is what God is most concerned about. Jesus said, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul, or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Jesus goes on and say, "Do not fear those who can kill the body but cannot kill the soul." God provides not only our physical needs here but also provides for our spiritual need, namely redemption. For God so loved the world that He gave His only Begotten Son that whosoever believes on Him should not perish but have everlasting life. Trust Him today while God has given you time.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
