- ◆ Thought for the Day: "Never let mistakes or wrong directions, of which every man falls into many, discourage you. There is precious instruction to be got by finding where we were wrong." Thomas Carlyle

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

This light affliction, which is but for a moment is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory (II Cor. 4:17)

When it comes to trials, tribulations, and afflictions, Paul had bragging rights. For a brief list, read 2 Corinthians 11:23-28. Shipwrecked, beaten, imprisoned, stoned, perils from his own people, from Gentiles, life endangerment wherever he went, sleeplessness, hunger, thirst, nakedness, not to mention the constant concern for those in the churches. And that was on his best days. One of the promises of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ that is never claimed is "In this world you will suffer tribulation (John 16:33). What? Yes. Not so, Lord! Yet Paul could say sincerely, I glory in tribulation. I am patient in tribulation. He could say that the sufferings of this present world are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. How come? He knew what was coming. He read the end of the book. Christian, remember who is the author and finisher of that book. We know how the story ends. Look unto Jesus the author and finisher of your faith.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
