- ◆ Thought for the Day: "Our anxiety does not empty tomorrow of its sorrows, but only empties today of its strengths" — Charles Spurgeon

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Jews have no dealings with Samaritans (John 4:9)

Jews hated Samaritans. They would go out of their way to avoid them. They considered them half-breeds. While they avoided them, Jesus, this day, sought them. It says, "But Jesus needed to go the Samaria." Originally, they were brought in from pagan nations (2 Kings 17:24) by King Shalmaneser of Assyria. In return, he shipped the Jews from Israel to his own Kingdom (2 Kings 17:5-6). Jesus went out of His busy preaching schedule to minister the gospel to a certain Samaritan woman, shunned both by the Jews and her own people. She was shocked that Jesus, a Jew, talked with her in a way that was different than all others. Jews had no dealings with Samaritans. Christian, are there people in your life that are like the Samaritans to the Jews? Remember, God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. No one, regardless of race, color, social status, personality, type of sin or even religion is excluded from the message of the Gospel.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
