Announcements

- ◆ Thought for the Day: "Our anxiety does not empty tomorrow of its sorrows, but only empties today of its strengths" — Charles Spurgeon

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

And as many as touched Him were made well. (Mark 6:56)

Jesus was a virtual dynamo. God's power to heal was available to all. All one had to do was reach out and touch Jesus and you received your healing. You were made well. Jesus was always being touched and He allowed it! Today if you touched, or merely attempted to touch a dignitary, the Secret Service would be upon you quicker than you can read this sentence. How would you feel if thousands of people touched you on a daily basis? Frankly, I'd go out of my skin! Not so with Jesus. Jesus welcomed them. Jesus said "Come on to me all you who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." Could He have just waved His hand and cause everyone to be healed or just spoken a word and all would be healed? Yes. Why didn't He? Perhaps He wanted them to have a more personal experience with Him rather than an impersonal one. It was also a tangible act of faith. Jesus said Come to Me. There are no restrictions to the word come. It includes everybody. Whosoever will, let him come. Have you come to Him yet?

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
