Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

For man also does not know his time (Eccl 9:12)

Today, Fifteen years ago, the inexplicable happened. Two planes intentionally plowed into the twin towers of the World Trade Center. Thousands of people lost their lives that day and our national consciousness changed forever. Today we remember their lives. We pray for the families who have lost loved ones. One common denominator among all the people that lost their lives that day is they all had plans for tomorrow. Nobody expected to die that day. A plane crashing into the building was the last thing they expected to happen. Man, the Bible says, does not know his time. James says, Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what tomorrow will bring. Our life is but a vapor (Psa 39:5) and as a tale already told (Psa 90:9). The Psalmist prayed to teach him to number his days (Psa 39:4). It is appointed a man once to die and after this the Judgment (Hebrews 9:27). One day, the plane of sin will crash into our towers of life. Only one life will soon be past, only what's done for Christ will last.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
