- ◆ Thought for the Day: "God delights to increase the faith of his children. We ought, instead of wanting no trials before victory, no exercise for patience, to be willing to take them from God's hands as a means. Trials, obstacles, difficulties, and sometimes defeats, are the very food of faith — George Muller

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him, but the just shall live by faith (Habakkuk 2:4)

This verse is an excellent contrast between religion and relationship, between works and grace. It is the battle between pride and humbleness. The battle was illustrated by Jesus Christ in the parable of the Pharisee versus the tax collector. The Pharisee, his soul was lifted up with pride, though he was outwardly religious, he prayed thus with himself (God was not listening to him). God, I thank you I'm not like this man (the tax collector). Then he gives his list of accomplishments, tithing, fasting, etc., etc. the other could not so much as lift his face before God and said Be merciful to me a sinner. Jesus said that man went down to his house justified (a legal declaration before the judgment throne of God). The just shall live by faith. It is not by works of righteousness which we have done but it's by his mercy He has saved us. Our own righteousness is but filthy rags before God. It is by grace we are saved through faith and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
