- ◆ Thought for the Day: "God delights to increase the faith of his children. We ought, instead of wanting no trials before victory, no exercise for patience, to be willing to take them from God's hands as a means. Trials, obstacles, difficulties, and sometimes defeats, are the very food of faith — George Muller

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Behold I come quickly and my reward is with me (Rev. 22:12)

One of my favorite verses is found in Hebrews 6 and I Corinthians 15. These verses tell us to be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing your work is not in vain. It also tells us that God is not unjust to forget your work and labor of love which you have shown toward His name, that that you have ministered to the saints, and do minister. There is nothing that escapes God's notice. There is nothing that will not be rewarded. If we even give a cup of water to a child, or a saint, we will not go unrewarded. God loves to lavish gifts to His children. If we are persecuted for the sake of the Gospel, great is our reward in Heaven. If our enemies are hungry and we feed them, great is our reward. Even our faith in Christ has great reward (Heb 10:35). In this verse Jesus' reward is with Him. Notice it doesn't say rewards. It says reward. My reward is with Me. Who is with Him? His saints. His reward, saints, is you. You are His reward. Behold He comes with ten thousands of His saints.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
