Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

"In whom also, having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of Promise, (Eph 1:13)

A seal was the way in which merchants were able to tell which cargo was theirs. Ephesus was a bustling city of commerce and the merchants would put their seal on the merchandise which was to be later shipped to Rome. It was like when you have a baggage ticket at the airport. Even if two had the same kind of luggage, the ticket differentiated ownership. So too, we are a purchased possession and the Holy Spirit is God's seal of ownership upon us. There is the story of the Gingerbread man where as the little girl was putting on the finishing touches, the Gingerbread jumped up and ran away. Said to the little girl, "You can't catch me, I'm the Gingerbread man!" Later the little girl found him at the bakery shop. It cost the little girl ten cents to purchase him back. She gave all she had and then said to the Gingerbread man, "'Now, you are really mine. First of all I made you and now I bought you.'" So too, God created us, we ran away, and now God has purchased us, redeemed us and sealed us with His Holy Spirit. We are forever His. And so shall we ever be with the Lord.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
