- ◆ Thought for the Day: "He became what we are that He might make us what He is" — Athanasius of Alexandria

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Know therefore that God exacts from you less than your iniquity deserves (Job 11:9)

The wages of sin is death. This is what our iniquity deserves. Yet God shows mercy and is long suffering, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance and to have everlasting life. Hell was made not for man but for the devil and his angels. The Bible tells us that God is the same yesterday, today and forever, therefore we are not consumed. There is nothing to prevent the unbeliever from going to Hell now but the by mercies of God holding them back. Think about how many times you could have been killed but you were not. There is no guarantee of God's favor today or tomorrow for the unbeliever. God says of the wicked through he Psalmist David, "Sure you have placed them on slippery places and in Deuteronomy, "Their feet shall slip in due time. But for the believer, His mercies are new every morning, great is His faithfulness. Thank God for His great mercy to us! God does not deal with us according to what we deserve

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
