Announcements

- ◆ Thought for the Day: "He became what we are that He might make us what He is" — Athanasius of Alexandria

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Oh, that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleads for his neighbor (Job 16:21)

Fortunately, Job's cry was answered. God has provided for Himself One that would plead for a man with God. Jesus Christ has fulfilled that role. There is one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus. He is able to save to the uttermost those who come by faith through Him seeing He ever lives to make intercession for us. He is our faithful high priest who pleads on our behalf. Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, who is even at the right hand of God who also makes intercession for us. Isn't it a comforting thought knowing that Jesus Christ is praying for you? When I went down nearly 32 years ago to receive Christ, the Evangelist said of Jesus, "If you confess me before men, I will confess you before my Father which is in Heaven, but if you deny me before men, I will also deny you before the Father who is in Heaven." I reasoned that if God the Father is my Judge, that would make Jesus Christ my attorney. No better Advocate than for Jesus Christ to go to bat for you and for me in the courtroom of Heaven

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
