Announcements

- ◆ Thought for the Day: "The difference between perseverance and obstinacy is that one often comes from a strong will, and the other from a strong won't" — Henry Ward Beecher
- ◆ March 19th: Communion/Agape Supper

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

But will allow with the temptation also make a way to escape that you might be able to bear it. (I Corinthians 10:13)

Joseph was an excellent example of the escape principle. Joseph was constantly being tempted by Potiphers wife. No doubt she was a beauty that any man would be flattered to have one such as her proposition him. I can not imagine. Yet, Joseph loved God. The Bible says Flee sexual immorality (I Corinthians 6:18). No temptation taken you but such as common to man. There was temptation. Joseph fled. He said, "Flee, treat me well!" Fleeing is not a sign of weakness but strength. It's easy to give in. Any dead fish can swim downstream, but only a live fish can swim upstream! God is faithful. Notice both the faithfulness and sovereignty omnipotent power of God. He WILL not allow you to be tempted above what you are able. God will MAKE a way of escape. Sometimes, all you can do is flee. Christian, know you are under the watchful eye of a faithful, loving Sovereign King. Take comfort Christian that just as a dam has an escape hatch to release the tremendous pressure of water, God will also make a way of escape to you might withstand the pressures of sin. God is ever watchful.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
