Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Death is swallowed up in victory (I Cor 15:54)

What a promise. It ends well. The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life. Paul points back to Isaiah 25:8, "He will swallow up death forever, and the LORD God will wipe away tears from all faces. In Revelation 21:4 we read, "And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away. Folks, there was a lot packed into Jesus' last word, Tetelestai! Not only was the penalty paid in full, but it was also the end of death. As the writer of Hebrews so eloquently put it, "Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared in the same that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. Death is defeated, victory has been accomplished and it's all because of Jesus. He was delivered up for our offenses and was raised up for our justification. He who believes in Me, Jesus said, shall never die. Amen.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
