Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

For our light affliction which is but for a moment is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory (2 Cor 4:17)

Paul begins this verse with the word, our. He doesn't say, Your light affliction. He identifies with the Corinthian church. Just as they were being afflicted, so too, he was right there with them. John, in Revelation, also identified with the Church in persecution and tribulation calling himself a brother and companion in the tribulation and kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ. Even more incredible is God Himself shares in our affliction. Isaiah writes, In all their affliction, He was afflicted and the Angel of His Presence saved them (Isa 63:9). Speaking of Jesus, we read, "For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin (Hebrews 4:15). Know therefore, when you suffer temptation, trial, or testing, you are not alone. You are in great company knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. There is no temptation that has taken you but such as is common to man, but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted about which you are able." Praise God

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
