Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

No greater love has no man than this, that a man would lay down his life for his friends (John 15:13)

Memorial Day, also known as Decoration Day was officially instituted on May 5, 1868 by General John Logan to honor the soldiers whose blood was shed in the Civil War. Their blood was the seed from which we enjoy the fruits of freedom. Blood is the most precious commodity. God talks about blood as the life of the body (Lev. 17:14). He says, For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul.' (Lev. 17:11) And according to the law almost all things are purified with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no remission (Heb 9:22). The men who lost their lives, willingly gave up their lives for the greater good. Jesus said, I am the Good Shepard who gives His life for the sheep. (John 10:11). Christ redeemed us by His precious blood. Oh precious is the flow that made me white as snow. What can wash away me sin? Nothing but the blood of Jesus.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
