Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ (Phil 1:6).

When I come home from work, I see a sign that says, "Road Construction...expect delays." I don't know anyone who likes delays, especially when it is a result of road construction. Yet, in the Christian life, we are a work under construction. As in the poem, The Weaver, "My life is but a weaving Between my Lord and me; I cannot choose the colors He worketh steadily. Oft times He weaveth sorrow And I, in foolish pride, Forget He sees the upper, And I the under side. Not til the loom is silent And the shuttles cease to fly, Shall God unroll the canvas And explain the reason why. The dark threads are as needful In the Weaver's skillful hand, As the threads of gold and silver In the pattern He has planned. He knows, He loves, He cares, Nothing this truth can dim. He gives His very best to those Who chose to walk with Him." The road before it gets paved is milled first and then the asphalt. In the process of God paving a new path, a new life, our life now is milled and the road seems rough. Yet be of good cheer. The end result is a smooth finish.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
