Announcements

- ◆ Thought for the Day: "The cross, as poignant as it is, is understandable from a human perspective: an innocent man was murdered by crooked politicians and religious leaders. But the empty tomb — what can you say? Only a supernatural God could accomplish that." — Jim Cymbala
- ◆ 6/25 — Graduates Reception; Church Picnic

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Then the Lord said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is loved by a lover and is committing adultery, just like the love of the Lord for the children of Israel, who look to other gods and love the raisin cakes of the pagans." Hosea 3:1

Amazing! His people, the Jews, were following after other gods beside the Lord. Does He throw them away? Cast them aside as refuse? Wash His hands of them and say I'm done! He could have if He was like us but He didn't. God said in another passage, Yes I have loved you with an everlasting love. In another passage He says though Paul, "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" Romans 8:35, 38-39). He who spared not His Own Son, the Bible says. But God demonstrates his own Love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us." Hallelujah. Rejoice in His unconditional, unending love for you.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
