Announcements

- ◆ Thought for the Day: "The cross, as poignant as it is, is understandable from a human perspective: an innocent man was murdered by crooked politicians and religious leaders. But the empty tomb — what can you say? Only a supernatural God could accomplish that."
— Jim Cymbala

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...to proclaim liberty to the captives (Isaiah 61:1)

This verse opened up Jesus' ministry to Jerusalem in fulfillment of the prophecy, "And you shall call His name Jesus, for He shall save His people from their sins." I can just imagine the jaws drop as those who were in the synagogue at that time realized the implications of Jesus proclamation that it was He who was to fulfill the Messianic Mission Statement. Jesus' mission to mankind was to set free the captives, to preach good news to the poor in spirit, to heal those who are broken hearted over their sin and the opening of the prison to those who are bound in sin. Jesus said, Whom the Lord sets free, is free indeed. You may say, I am free! I am in bondage to no one. So said the Jews. They were trusting in their pedigree being of Abraham's seed. Yet, Jesus said they were in bondage to sin and that He came to set them free. The Bible declares that everyone is in the snare of the Devil having been taken captive by him to do his will. The natural man doesn't like that idea that they are held captive by the Devil to do his will. Yet, in Christ, God sets us free from the bondage of the Devil, of Sin, and of Death.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
