Announcements

- ◆ Thought for the Day: "The cross, as poignant as it is, is understandable from a human perspective: an innocent man was murdered by crooked politicians and religious leaders. But the empty tomb — what can you say? Only a supernatural God could accomplish that." — Jim Cymbala

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

I am convinced...

Paul was a persuaded and convinced Christian. He was convinced of God's power and promises just as Abraham was fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform." Secondly, Paul was convinced of God's unchanging love for him and all believers. We know that nothing can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus. His love is unchanging. Thirdly, Paul was convinced of his eternal salvation. He writes, "I know in whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day. (II Timothy 1:12). Because God is all powerful and nothing is able to separate us from the love of God, we can be utterly convinced that God will save us and keep us to the end. Peter writes we are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation. Who keeps us? Ourselves? No, we are kept by the power of God. Jesus gives His stamp saying, "Most assuredly I say to you, he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me HAS everlasting life. God keeps His promises, loves you and keeps you till the end.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
