Announcements

- ◆ Thought for the Day: "The cross, as poignant as it is, is understandable from a human perspective: an innocent man was murdered by crooked politicians and religious leaders. But the empty tomb — what can you say? Only a supernatural God could accomplish that." — Jim Cymbala
- ◆ September 23: Combined Men and Women's Fellowship Breakfast @ 9:30am in the Fellowship Hall
- ◆ September 25-27: North East Pastors Conference at Calvary Chapel of the Fingerlakes. If your schedule permits, be blessed and edified with brilliant teaching by Pastors who have your best at heart.

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. (Philippians 4:19)

God is indeed able to do exceedingly abundantly more than we can ask or think. Now this does not mean we should set our heart on stuff. This is not Your Best Life Now. No, Paul said in Colossians 3, "If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. Set your mind on things above, not on things on earth. Jesus said Where your heart is, the also is your treasure. Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life is not of the Father but is of the world And the world is passing away, and the lust of it, but He who does the will of God abides forever. Hebrews tells us Let your conduct be without covetousness. Be content with such things as you have. Why? He Himself has said, I will never leave you nor forsake you. And again having food and clothing with these we should be content, Why? Because we have a Father who loves and cares for you

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
