Announcements

- ◆ Thought for the Day: "The cross, as poignant as it is, is understandable from a human perspective: an innocent man was murdered by crooked politicians and religious leaders. But the empty tomb — what can you say? Only a supernatural God could accomplish that." — Jim Cymbala
- ◆ September 25-27: North East Pastors Conference at Calvary Chapel of the Fingerlakes. If your schedule permits, be blessed and edified with brilliant teaching by Pastors who have your best at heart.
- ◆ Feel the desire to help, but not know where to plug in? Check out the needs of the Church at the Information desk.

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

And the Peace of God which surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus (Phil. 4:7)

Peace. The one word that is easy to pronounce but so elusive to achieve. We spend millions of dollars to get some but let's face it; if we are not coming out of some trial or tribulation of some kind now or in the midst of one, we are going into one. Life is like a greased pole. We make some progress toward a goal of some kind only to lose our grip and slip back down. Unfortunately, the peace that people so often desire becomes like a dream in the night. Here one day and gone the next. There are two kinds of peace: the one which the world gives and the peace that God gives, the peace that comes from God. Yes, the world can give you a form of peace, at least temporarily but is circumstance based. Yet God gives perfect peace. Jesus said, Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world give to you. Let not your heart be trouble, neither lit it be afraid...In me you may have peace. In this world you will have tribulation, but be of good cheer. I have overcome the world. Praise God.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
