Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD nor detest His correction (Proverbs 3:11)

Nobody, I mean nobody likes to be rebuked or corrected. Scripture says, "Now, no chastening seems to be joyful, but painful" (Hebrews 12:11). It's like the commercial where people are depicted as enjoying pain and suffering. That does not happen. It goes against our pride. Of course, many times it's not the correction itself, but rather the delivery, that is, how it's presented. In this verse we find that we should not grumble or complain when it is delivered by the LORD. Why? Jesus tells us in Revelation. "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. We ought not despise chastening from God, because we know God's intention is out of love. Nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus. Paul gives us a bit more insight: "when we are judged, we are chastened of the LORD, that we may not be condemned with the world. The Bible says If you endure chastening, God deals with you as sons, for what son whom a father does not chasten? The truth is, you belong to God. You are His child. You are not of this world. God loves you so much that He can't keep his eyes off you.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
