Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Yet God does not take away a life; but He devises means so that His banished ones are not expelled from Him (2 Sam. 14:14)

I love this verse for obvious reasons. All of us are the banished ones. All have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. Sin separates us from God and man. The Bible tells us that are iniquities have separated us from God and our sins have hidden His face from you. Yet, it didn't end there. The news is not all bad. God demonstrated His own love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for. Jesus said, "Greater love has no man than this, that a man would lay down his life for his friends, but God demonstrated His love by sending Jesus to die on the Cross, to pay our penalty for sin, which was death. God is longsuffering not willing that any should perish but have everlasting life. The first banished ones were Adam and Eve—kicked out from the Garden, yet God guarded the way to the Tree of Life. He devised a means so that His banished one were not expelled. He prepared a plan of redemption even before the beginning of time. In hope of eternal life promised before time began. Are you one of God's banished ones? God has provided a means so as to bring you back.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
