- ◆ Thought for the Day: "The test of love is in how one relates not to saints and scholars but to rascals" —Abraham Joshua Herschel

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them (II Kings 8:16)

Elisha's servant was mortified when he woke up to see the multitudes of horses and chariots surrounding them. Yet, Elisha never batted an eye. Why? He saw the invisible. Here is a truth we should take to heart. There are more on our side than those in the enemy's camp. When Satan fell, he took only 1/3rd of the angels. We have 2/3rds left. We outnumber them two to one. Those are good odds. Yet, we have something even better—God! If God be for you who can be against you? How did Elisha assuage his servant's fears? He prayed. So too, are you under duress? Do you feel surrounded on every side? Let God open your eyes to see what cannot be seen. Let Him remind you who you are in Christ. You are a child of God, co-heirs with Christ. The very hairs on your head are numbered by God. You are his poem. You are the apple of God's eye and nothing happens that will destroy you. No weapon formed against you shall prosper, it is the inheritance of the saints in the light. You are God's

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
