- ◆ Thought for the Day: "The test of love is in how one relates not to saints and scholars but to rascals" —Abraham Joshua Herschel

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

He is despised and rejected by man, a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief.

Sadly, things have not changed when it comes to the world's attitude towards Christ. He is still despised and rejected by men. The world, instead of glorify Him, use His name in place of a four letter filth word to represent disgust. He was known as a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. Why? He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. He was in the world and the world was made by Him and the world knew Him not. Instead of being received as their Messiah, they crucified Him. Though He had done so much good — healing the lepers, the blind, the lame, raising the dead and sharing the good news of the Gospel, yet in the end, they cried, "Crucify Him!" They beat Him, spat upon Him, His face was so disfigured that He didn't even resemble that of a man. They plucked His beard from His cheeks and ripped open His back. Yet, He endured all these things for our sake. For the joy that was before Him, he endured the cross despising the shame. He endured all that to reconcile us to God

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
