- ♦ Thought for the Day: "The last words of Christ was Tetelestai, the first words of Christ was Rejoice! Rejoice! Christ is risen from the dead."

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

He was delivered up because of our offenses and was raised up for our justification. (Romans 4:25)

The last words of Jesus on the Cross was Tetelestai! It is finished! Paid in full! The first words of Jesus post resurrection was. "Rejoice!" Those two words encapsulate Good Friday and Resurrection Sunday. He who knew no sin became sin for us that we might become the righteousness of God. Who Himself bore our own sins in His body on the tree that we having died to sins might live unto righteousness by whose stripes we are healed. He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities, the chastisement for our peace was upon Him and by His stripes we are healed. Yet it wouldn't be much of a Good Friday if He didn't raise from the dead. Paul said, If Christ is not risen, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins! Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most pitiable. (I Cor. 15:17-19). Praise God, He's alive, our sins have been forgiven, Heavens gates are open wide. Rejoice!

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
