Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no injury whatever was found on him, because he believed in his God. (Daniel 6:23).

Daniel believed in his God. Despite what the world threw at him, his trust in God never wavered. Now Daniel had done nothing wrong. He was the victim of some very jealous Governors or Satraps as they called them. Daniel was as clean and as pure as Ivory Soap. The only thing they could pin on him was his devotion to God (Oh, may that be charged of us as well). Yet, God preserved him as He did with Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego through the fire. Now, God did not prevent him from the Lion's den, but saved him through the Lion's den. Jesus never promised us a life free from trials and tribulation and persecution. In fact, he forewarned them that they would face it. Then He added, "but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." Paul wrote that all who desire to live godly will suffer persecution. Do not fear, Christian, the Lion's den that comes you way. God has shut up the lion's mouth and not a hair of your head will perish. God loves

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
