Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, A broken and a contrite heart —these, O God, You will not despise. (Psalm 51:17)

GODISNOWHERE. How do you read that line? Do you read it as God is nowhere or God is now here? Sometimes when we go through trials and tribulations we are likely to read it as God is no where as in no where to be found. Our prayers seem to reach a busy signal and that God does not hear our prayers. It's an awful feeling, but that's all it is, a feeling. Instead of feeling God is nowhere in our darkest moments, know instead that God is now here! He never leaves you nor forsakes you. Nothing can separate you from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus. He is near to you even right now. The bible tells us, "The Lord is near to those who have a broken heart, and saves such as have a contrite spirit (Psa 34:18) A bruised reed He will not break and a smoking flax He will not quench (Isa 42:3). Do you feel bruised? He will strengthen you. Is your fire for God a dying ember? God will breathe on you the breath of life. His ear is always open to you. Amen.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
