Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Likewise, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents (Luke 15:10)

Jesus gave the Pharisees an object lesson when they complained saying, "This Man receives sinners and eats with them!" Of course, eating with someone was tantamount to becoming one with, identifying with another person. Jesus had a few words to say about their lack of love and compassion and called them out in their hypocrisy. What was highly esteemed among them, their religion, their position, their power was an abomination before God. Why? God was not about any of that, but about the souls of men and women. He reminded them that they'd go out and seek out their lost animals and money with earnest. The same joy they had for finding their lost sheep or the one coin which was lost, God rejoiced over one person who repents and trusts in Christ. Jesus said, You are worth more than many sparrows. He numbers all the hairs of your head (for some this isn't much). He came to seek and save the lost. You are valuable to God. So much so He gave His only begotten Son to bring you to Himself.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
