Announcements

- ◆ Thought for the Day: "I write to you fathers because you have known Him who is from the beginning" 1 John 2:13

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

"Take away the filthy garments from him." And to him He said, "See, I have removed your iniquity from you, and I will clothe you with rich robes." (Zech. 3:4)

Notice whom God is speaking to? He is speaking to Joshua the High Priest. Yet, despite his position, Joshua was clothed with filthy garments before God. Religious works are poor substitutes for righteousness. Jesus said, Unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the Scribes and Pharisees you shall in no wise enter the kingdom of God. God says in Isaiah 64 that our own righteousness is like filthy rags. Here, God says to Joshua, I'm going to remove your filthy garments, taking away your iniquity and I'm giving you a new set of clothes. We too need a new set of clothes. First time God provided clothing was animal skins. This time, He clothes us with the righteousness of Christ. God removes our filthy robes of self-righteousness and clothes us with the pristine whiteness of Christ's righteousness. Though your sins be like scarlet, they shall be white as snow, though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool. Through the blood of Jesus Christ, robes are made white like snow. Praise God.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
