Announcements

- ◆ Thought for the Day: "Christ is a substitute for everything. But nothing is a substitute for Christ" —H.A. Ironside

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

You shall know the truth and the truth will set you free.

There is nothing more freeing than to know the truth and to live in it. When someone tells you that truth is relative or that you can't know the truth, ask them if that's true. Both statements are truth statements. Notice, a couple of verses down, it says whom the Son sets free will be free indeed. In Pilgrims Progress, we read of Christian and Hopeful being captured by Giant Despair and held captive in Doubting Castle. Christian and Hopeful escape when Christian realized he has a key called Promise that opens the doors and gates of Doubting Castle. The Bible tells us all the promises of God in Christ are yes and in Him, amen to the glory of God. God's promises in Christ are the key to opening up the prison doors that are holding you captive. Since it's impossible for God to lie, it is impossible for any of these promises to be false. When we realize who we are in Christ Jesus according to His glorious promises will cause us to live in newness of life. Paul warns us to stand fast in the liberty by which Christ has made us free and not to be entangled again with a yoke of bondage. Live in the promises of God. You are a new creation. Old things have passed all things become new. You are set free from sin, free from the bondage of sin, free from the penalty of sin. You are free indeed. Amen.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
