- ◆ Thought for the Day: "Christ is a substitute for everything. But nothing is a substitute for Christ" —H.A. Ironside

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

In the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus (Eph. 2:7)

"In the ages to come..." This phrase indicates that we are today merely scratching the surface of what shall be revealed later. Paul writes earlier "eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor has entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him" (I Cor 2:9). This does not come from human reasoning but through revelation by His Spirit. The Spirit has already revealed some thing to us through His word. Here are just a few. First, we shall be conformed into His glorious likeness. "Beloved, now we are children of God; and it hasn't yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is (I John 3:2). We know that there will be fullness of joy (Psalms 16:11). We shall reign with Christ (2 Timothy 2:12; Rev 5:10). And if children, then heirs, heirs of God, joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together. We shall be glorified. "For I consider the suffering of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us (Rom 8:18) For our light affliction which is but for a moment, is working for a us a for more exceeding and eternal weight of Glory. Look ahead.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
