Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous and His ears are open to their cry (Psa 34:15)

My Pastor once shared a story about his daughter who asked him does God really keep His eyes on me? He replied, "Well, yes, God loves you so much He can't take His eyes off of you." God is constantly looking out for you showing Himself strong on your behalf. Job tells us He does not withdraw his eyes from the righteous (Job 36:7) and that the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him on those who hope in His mercy (Psa 33:18). You are precious before God. Jesus said not even a sparrow falls from the tree with His notice. Then He says you are worth more than many sparrows and that He numbers their hairs on your head. His thoughts are more than the grains of sand or the stars in Heaven. They are without number. You are the apple of His eye. Secondly, it says His ears are open to their cry. Regardless of our feelings, know that God is open to the cry of the righteous. He listens on account of our faith in Christ. He has taken the sin that separates us from God and He has nailed it to His Cross having forgiven us all trespasses and sin. Know then, Christian, God hears you, and His eyes are always upon you. Amen.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
