Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you" (Heb. 13:5)

Have you ever heard the phrase, Money is the root of all evil? but is that what Scripture says? It's not money but the love of it. It could be said that covetousness is the root of all kinds of evil. James tells us why our prayers are often not answered. "You ask and do not receive because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your own pleasure (James 4:3). We call it Black Friday because that is the day when retailers are supposed to go into the Black. It is also the day when consumers go into the Red. A recent article stated that 28% are still paying for what they spent last year on Black Friday. This verse gives us the antidote for covetousness. You belong to God. He will never leave you nor forsake you. Ever. Jesus said, Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the ages. Jesus preached against covetousness when on the Sermon on the Mount he told His audience, Don't worry about what you are going to eat, or drink, or wear. Why? Because you have a Heavenly Father who knows what you need of before you even ask. The Lord is your Shepherd, You shall not want.

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
