Announcements

- ◆ Thought for the Day: "The knowledge of Christ's love for us should cause us to love Him in such a way that it is demonstrated in our attitude, conduct, and commitment to serve God. Spiritual maturity is marked by spiritual knowledge being put into action — Edward Bedore
- ◆ December 31st — New Year's Eve Worship at 6:30pm

Your words were found, and I ate them. And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart (Jeremiah 15:16)

Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead (Phil. 3:13)

Every one of us makes new year's resolutions which carries the promises of a better year. If you're like most people, we look back at our previous year as one where we wish it were better. We have trials and struggles, heartache and pain punctuated by times of great joy, blessings and love. You don't have to wait a whole year to make a resolution. You can do it every day—resolve to follow Christ more closely than yesterday. Each day is a fresh start. His mercies are new every morning. Great is His faithfulness. Paul seemed to carry with him the deep regret of once persecuting the church in his former life as a Pharisee. Yet he wrote I leave aside the past and I press forward to the upward call in Christ Jesus. Perhaps Paul was thinking of Isaiah 43 "Do not remember the former things, Nor consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing, Now it shall spring forth; Shall you not know it? I will even make a road in the wilderness And rivers in the desert." Behold, God says, I make all things new. Praise God

"Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God." - Acts 10:33 To avoid distracting others please turn off cell phones before the service begins. Thank you.
